Dear Mr. Bowles:

In the absence of Mr. Dulles, I am acknowledging your letter of September 7 and the copy of your memorandum on economic assistance.

I will be happy to bring these to the attention of Mr. Dulles upon his return. In the meantime, I am bringing your memorandum to the attention of other senior officials here.

Sincerely,

Assistant to the Director

Dear Allen:

I am enclosing a memorandum on economic assistance which I hope may be of interest to you.

I feel that time is rapidly running out on this subject, and I very much hope that whichever administration wins in November will make it their first order of business.

With my warmest regards.

Sincerely,

Chester Bowles
